A DESTRUCTIVE FIRE.

THE RESIDENCE OF WILLIAM EN-DERS AT PROVO DESTROYED.

The Damage is $1,500-Judge Smith Will Held Court Today-Miscellaous Happenings and News

Provo. Jan. 19.—[Special.]—At 2:45 o'clock this morning the fire alarm was sounded and in a short time the volunteer boys were hurrying rapidly to the curning residence of William Enders, between First and Second streets and a street. The house had been burning for some time before it was discovered and by the time ald arrived the whole interior was destroyed and shortly after the roof caved in.

The residence is situated at the extreme southwest of town, about fitteen blocks from the fire department and beyond the water mains. It required 1,100 feet of hose to convey the water to the burning structure. By the brick walls. None of the family were at home and it is unknown how the fire originated.

The building was insured in the Continental company for $1,500.

The Strange Case of a Connecticut Hermit.

For thirty-five years Oswell Power has lived the life of a hermit in the woods six miles north of Haltyme, Conn., in a lo-nility known as Partridge Chun. The man's seclusion was forced upon him by a circumsiance which happened to him when he was about 25 years old. At that time Powell was a prosperous and happy young farmer. He had been two years married and his domestic relations were extremely piensant.

While attending the county fair one day he came across a friend who was the best man arose between them. Powell's friend claimed fath the could hold the most electricity, and he started him the stand on tiptoe.

The men tried the machine and a good-natured dispute as to who was the best man arose between them. Powell's friend claimed fath the could hold the most electricity, and he started him the stand on tiptoe.

Powell's nerves had, somehow, been seriously affected. Expert medical advice was taken, and a good deal of money was spent by Powell in seaching for a cure, but to no purpose. The strange power grew upon him, and finally became so strong that the cattle shrank from his touch.

Finally Mrs. Powell was induced to return to her husband's house, but the two occupied separate apart nents. They lived in this way three years; then Powell left, and took up his residence in a house that he built in Partridge Run

CURIOUS THING THIS

Is a Sweat or Excretory Gland. Its mouth is called a PORE. There are 7,000,000 in the human skin. Through them are discharged many impurities, To close them means death. Sluggish or clogged pores mean yellow, mothy skin, pimples, blotches, eczema. The blood becomes impure.

Hence serious blood humors. Perfect action of the pores Means clear, wholesome skin, Means pure blood, Means beauty and health.

Cuticura Resolvent

Exerts a peculiar, purifying action upon the skin, and through it upon the blood. Thus its cures of distressing humors are speedy, permanent, and economical.

Like all of the CUTICURAS, it is pure, sweet, gentle, and effective. Mothers and children are its warmest friends.

Bad Complexions

Suggish action of the pores also causes the complexion and skin to become dark, yellow, oily and mothy, giving rise to pumples, blackheads, roughness, redness, falling hair and baby blemishes. The only reliable preventive and external cure is Cuticuna Soar, the most effective skin purifying and beantifying soap in the world as well as the purest and sweetest for toilet and nursery.

COTICURA REMEDIES are sold everywhers. Price, CUTICURA RESOL.
